This course meets State of Maryland educational requirements for Senior Staff working with preschool children. You must have a higher school diploma or GED certificate to take this course. This course also provides 90 of the 120 training hours required for the Child Development Associate (CDA) Credential.

This Course will concentrate on the growth and development of the infant through 5 year old, with primary emphasis on the ages of 2 to 5. A major focus of the course is the formulation of appropriate developmental curriculum for preschool children.

Learning experiences include lecture, discussion, small group work, speakers, films and videos, and observations of a model classroom.
